CINEMA PARADISO (PG)

15th October, 6:45pm

This Italian classic tells the story of a filmmaker's childhood and falling in love with the pictures at his village cinema

"This is one of my favourite films of all time... Its such a simple yet very poignant story of this young boy and his substitute father, and the feeling of nostalgia it evokes throughout really resonates with me. The reality of leaving things behind and then finding out on your return that nothing has remained the same, that everything changes."

CARMEN JONES (U)

An electrifying rendition of Bizet's famous opera, an all black cast is led by Dorothy Dandridge and Harry Belafonte
